These aspects are then related to early Christian texts such as the Gospel of Mark and sections from Paul's letters. Endorsements: At last! This collection of essays by Pieter Botha is a tremendous gift to those interested in issues related to orality and literacy in the ancient world. Botha is among the leading voices in this conversation. His thoughtful and carefully crafted essays represent some of the best work in the field. This collection deserves to be a part of any conversation moving forward. --Holly Hearon, Author of The Mary Magdalene Tradition For twenty years Pieter Botha has been doing...
