Dr. Buchanan remarks, that this event affords an invaluable lesson concerning.the character of the Hindoos and the facility of civilising them. What was effected in Guzerat, continues that benevolent writer, in regard to the murder of children, is equally practicable in Bengal, as to the burning of women, and at Juggernaut, as to self-murder.under Molochis tower. We would ask, what is there to prevent the custom of burning women alive, from being discussed in the public culchery of Calcutta, and exposing the enormity of the practice, as contrary to the precepts of religion and the dictates of nature? The English nation have a right to demand an answer to this question from the supreme government of Bengal. Abhorrent to natural feeling as the destruction of female infants may appear, it is certain that it is only the...
