Government Accountability Office, 2004 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)56472046 Subject: Medicaid fraud -- Prevention. Excerpt: . . . Nevada officials reported that certain types of providers located in the state - including dentists, DME suppliers, and home health agencies - are permitted to enroll for only a 1-year period and must reapply each year to continue billing Medicaid. Out-of-state providers are limited to a 3-month enrollment period and must reapply to continue to bill the Nevada program. Wisconsin officials reported that the state requires nonemergency transportation providers to reenroll annually, while all other types of providers must submit new enrollment applications every 3 years. Many states deter fraud, abuse, and error by using advanced technologies Some States Have and keeping their provider rolls up to date. States seek to enhance Strengthened Controls program integrity activities by investing in information technologies that to Avoid Paying enable them to preauthorize services and improve their data processing Inappropriate Claims capabilities. They also contract with companies that specialize in claims and utilization review - analyses of claims to identify aberrant billing patterns - to augment their in-house capabilities. In addition, nearly all states take steps to eliminate paying claims billed under unauthorized provider numbers. Most states use advanced technology to prevent improper payments by Using Advanced Technology requiring providers to validate beneficiary eligibility before services are rendered. For example, 32 states use online systems that require pharmacies to obtain state approval confirming a beneficiary's eligibility before filling a prescription. Using a different technology, New York implemented a system that stores information on the magnetic strip of a beneficiary's Medicaid card, which also includes the beneficiary's photo. By swiping the card, providers are able to...
